A mother's love is the greatest love. Sai is mother's love. Sai is omnipresent. Only love and Sai are the most reliable. The cultivation of love begins with loving your loved ones. A filial son looks after and honours his parents. There is nothing more filial than nourishing your parents with all that you have at your disposal. A lamb will kneel down to suck milk from its mother's udders and a crow will feed its mother. There is no greater God than your parents.
